

STUDY MOBILITY AT UFOP – SEMESTER 2025/1 – INDUSTRIAL ENGINEERING

Target public: Industrial Engineering (or related areas) undergraduate or Master's students

Nomination/application procedures: Fact Sheet

Deadline: November 30th

a) Period 1: March to July

1. Course: Portuguese as a Foreign Language (includes cultural activities)

Workload: 15 hours a week (15 ECTS)

2. Course: Supervised Internship in Industrial Engineering (Prof. André Luis Silva)

Workload: 15 hours a week (15 ECTS)

This course is divided in 2 parts:

- part 01: conduct studies and research on: business incubator, entrepreneurship, business management, marketing, finance, quality management.
- part 02: a) management of internal processes of the business incubator; b) create and offer mini-courses on entrepreneurship; c) assist in the quality mechanism of the business incubator; d) assist companies installed in the business incubator

a) Period 1: May to August

3. Course: Entrepreneurship or Human Resources Management or Marketing (Prof. André Luis Silva)

Workload: 4 hours a week (6 ECTS)

4. Course: Applied Statistics for the Social Sciences and Economics (Prof. Fernando Luiz Pereira de Oliveira)

Workload: 4 hours a week (6 ECTS)

5. Course: Brazilian Culture and Identity (Prof. Paulo Monteiro Nunes)

Workload: 4 hours a week (6 ECTS)

MINISTRY OF EDUCATION
FEDERAL UNIVERSITY OF OURO PRETO
INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS OFFICE (DRI)

Universidade Federal
de Ouro Preto

Extended holidays – First semester:

April 17th to April 21st: Holy Week (Easter) + Tiradentes's Day

May 1st to May 4th: Labor's Day

June 19th to June 22nd: Corpus Christi

Cultural Activities

The Welcome Project offers at least one cultural activity a month. All international students are welcome to take part in the interesting activities we promote, including some short trips.

Internship/Research Offer

Besides taking classes, students can also take part in a research or work on an internship at our university. More information available here.